

Robert Gibbings

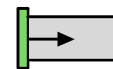

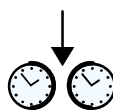

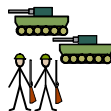

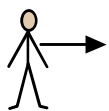

Robert Gibbings was born in Ireland.

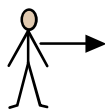

He studied medicine at university and then studied art.

He became good at drawing and wood engraving.

He joined the army as soon as WW1 started.

Robert Gibbings joined the Royal Munster Fusiliers

1st

1915

He went to Gallipoli on June 1st 1915.

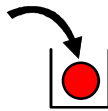

Gibbings

was

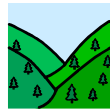

attacking

in a

ravine

and was

badly

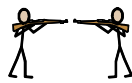

wounded.

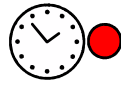

He

didn't

fight

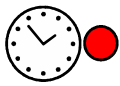

after

that battle.

After

the war

he

became a well known

artist.

He

presented

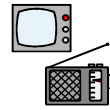

natural history

programmes

on television and radio.